THE MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. VENKAIAH NAIDU): (a) to (c) A National Summit on Public-Private Partnership for Rural Prosperity was held in New Delhi on 16th October, 2001 and was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Prime Minister who called upon Government and industry together to make Rural Prosperity the 'mantra' of the decade. The Summit was attended by industrialists and corporate representatives who expressed keen interest in establishing a meaningful partnership to accelerate the process of development of the rural areas. The Presentations made, inter alia, covered themes like the development of rural infrastructure.

Substantial allcoations have been made, over the years, for various Rural Development Schemes and Programmes, including Rs. 2500 crore for the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana for the year 2001 -2002. The Central share of funds for such Programmes is made available to the States and Union Territories for speedy implementation of the same, in accordance with prescribed criteria. Central releases are, accordingly, in hand in the current year.
